

LINCOLNSHIRE BEEKEEPERS' ASSOCIATION

Lincolnshire Show Committee Policy

Delegation of Powers to the Lincolnshire Show Committee.

Central Council delegates powers to the Lincolnshire Show Committee to manage a bank account specifically for the purposes of organising an exhibition of beekeeping at the Lincolnshire Agricultural Society's Annual Show, which promotes LBKA and its objects and includes the Association's Annual Honey Show.

Central Council requires that:

The Committee submits an annual return of accounts, within 3 weeks of the LBKA year end, to the LBKA treasurer for consolidation within LBKA's accounts.

Organisation

1. The Committee will hold such meetings as necessary to produce a beekeeping event at the Lincolnshire Agricultural Society's Annual Show on behalf of LBKA.

This event will:

- Present LBKA's Annual Honey Show
- Use such means as displays and demonstrations to;
 - a) engage the public in such a way as to increase their awareness of the importance of bees and beekeeping to the environment,
 - b) promote a wide range of beekeeping activities and good husbandry.

2. The Committee will comprise a Secretary and Treasurer, who are elected annually at LBKA's AGM, an Entries Secretary and nine additional members from LBKA's Districts. The Secretary on election will become a Trustee of the Association.

3. All meetings are minuted, these minutes shall be retained by the Committee. Meeting minutes shall be available to any person requesting them.

Contacts

Contact details for the Officers of the Lincolnshire Show Committee can be found on the LBKA website www.lincsbka.org.uk or by request to the Association's Honorary Secretary.

This policy was originally approved by LBKA's Central Council at its meeting on 11th January 2011 and was reviewed in July 2018
